SUMMARY

My background in retail has equipped me with skills for teamwork, problem-solving, and effective communication. Despite enjoying these years, I've decided to pivot towards my true passion: technology.
I chose to embark on a self-taught learning journey through Udemy, Platzi, and YouTube tutorials. Realizing my increasing interest, I further committed to completing the Web Development Bootcamp at Adalab.
I love learning, so I'm open to expanding my knowledge with the languages and environments the company requires.

Ideal candidate for roles requiring motivation, enthusiasm, and adaptability.
